

ISBN: 90 6665 696 4BV I

Global civil society, world citizenship and education

Edited by: Caroline Suransky, Ireen Dubel and Henk Manschot

Contents

Preface – Caroline Suransky, Ireen Dubel and Henk Manschot	6
Part I - Civil Society and Citizenship	10
Citizens on the Move. Changing perspectives on Civil Society over the centuries – Allert van den Ham	10
African Civil Domains. Realities and Mirages – David Sogge	19
All different, all equal. European multicultural citizenship – Rob Buitenweg	29
Citizenship Rights and Participation. Advancing women's voice and agency in development thought and practice – Shamim Meer	39
Part II - Education and World Citizenship	52
World citizenship and education. The challenge of the Millennium Development Goals – Elaine Unterhalter	52
Patriotism or cosmopolitanism? On education and world citizenship – Caroline Suransky and Henk Manschot	59
'And my heart blossomed into mustard flowers'. An experience of an intercultural classroom setting – Liesbeth Gulpers	70
Internet brings together world citizens, but does it breed new ones, too? – Loe Schout	76
About the editors	79